

Terms of Service/Release

This is an official release statement, attesting that you, the undersigned, are the sole author of the content submitted and have not plagiarized any part of its content.

Further, you grant The George Michael Legacy Project, Inc. permission to use your statement, upon review and selection only for the George Michael, A Moment with You book. This book will be a long term fundraising project created to support a charitable cause supported throughout his life. Only the author's name and entry details will be included in the book. GMLP, Inc., will develop this project (estimated publication June 2022) by using the listed songs as primary inspiration for your entry. Be expressive, and let George's life work and musical vision inspire you. Through his compassion, love, and hope the world is a better place for those he helped. Your original content will be considered for inclusion. Sharing your memories and personal encounters will bring joy to all who will read it and the charity that will benefit from it. Submit questions along with your entry. We will promptly respond.
